DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 27, 31 and 33 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
2. The indicated allowability of claims 28, 29, 30, 32 is withdrawn in view of the newly discovered reference(s) to Panter et al and Stam et al.

3. APPARATUS CLAIMS MUST BE STRUCTU-RALLY DISTINGUISHABLE FROM THE PRIOR ART

>While features of an apparatus may be recited either structurally or functionally, claims<directed to >an< apparatus must be distinguished from the prior art in terms of structure rather than function. >In re Schreiber, 128 F.3d 1473, 1477-78, 44 USPQ2d 1429,1431-32 (Fed. Cir. 1997) (The absence of a disclosure in a prior art reference relating to function did not defeat the Board's finding of anticipation of claimed apparatus because the limitations at issue were found to be inherent in the prior art reference); see also In re Swinehart, 439 F.2d 210, 212-13, 169 USPQ 226, 228-29 (CCPA 1971);< In re Danly, 263 F.2d 844, 847, 120 USPQ 528, 531 (CCPA 1959). "[A]pparatus claims cover what a device is, not what a device does." Hewlett-Packard Co. v. Bausch & Lomb Inc., 909 F.2d 1464, 1469, 15 USPQ2d 1525, 1528 (Fed. Cir. 1990) (emphasisin original).

Claim 28 recites a parameter integration section for integrating; claim 29 recited a first reliability storage section for; claim 30 recites a control section for; claim 31 recites a sensor section capable of detecting; claim 32 recites a sensor section capable of detecting, claim 34 recites a sensor section capable of.

Accordingly claims 28, 29, 30, 31-32 and 34 are rejected.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 28, 29, 30, 31-32 and 34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Panter et al and Stam et al.

In view of paragraph 3, in this Office Action, above claims are disclosed in the presented prior arts of record.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 1-27, 32-33 and 35 are allowed.
